$$S = U + (F - U) / (Q) \times (T)$$

Where:

- S - the annual interest rate of the deposit “Orakan”,
- U - "Progress" deposit interest rate which is the closest to the invested deposit and has shorter time period,
- F - "Progress" deposit interest rate which is the closest to the invested deposit and has longer time period,
- Q – difference between the days of "Progress" deposits closest to the invested deposit with shorter and longer time periods,
- T - difference between the days of the deposit and the nearest "Progress" deposits with the shortest maturity.

A contractual interest rate is established if the deposit amount exceeds AMD 50,000,000, USD 100,000 and EUR 50,000.

For further details, please contact the Bank.

Converse Bank CJSC is supervised by the Central Bank of Armenia.

Payment of interests	At expiry
Income tax	10% from interest income

The deposit interest amount is calculated in the following way:

Daily interest income during a leap year

1,000,000 (deposited sum) x 5.78/100 (annual interest rate) / 366 (number of days in a year) = 157.92

Total interest income for 70 days

157.92 x 70 days = 11,054.64

Net interest income for 70 days

11,054.61 - 1,105.46 (10% from total interest income is subject to income tax) = 9,949.18 (interest payable to the depositor at the end of the term of the deposit)

Total amount of deposit (initial amount + interests after taxation) AMD 1,009,949.18

Calculated amounts are rounded up to one hundredth.

Annual percentage yield

The interest on the funds in your account is calculated on the basis of simple interest rate, and the annual interest yield shows the income you would receive as a result of making mandatory payments related to deposit and receiving interest earned on a regular basis.

The calculation of the annual percentage yield on the deposit is made on the basis of the following formula set under the Central Bank of the Republic of Armenia Regulation 8/02 "Calculation of the annual percentage yield of bank deposits":

$$A = \sum_{n=1}^N \frac{Kn}{(1 + APY)^{\frac{Dn}{365}}}$$

Where:

- A – initial amount of deposit
- n - the successive cash flow number for the deposit
- N - the last cash flow number for the deposit (including cash flow at the time of opening the deposit), after which the deposit agreement is considered to be expired,
- Kn - flows of deposit and / or capitalized interests at the time of opening deposit or operating time period and the flows of mandatory payments, if any,
- Dn - the number that indicates the quantity of days elapsed since the day of making the deposit up to the next - nth cash flow to the deposit, inclusively (at the time of making the deposit: D1 = 0)

General terms for opening of deposit

1. Time deposit agreement is concluded between the Bank and the Depositor.
2. The depositor can be more than one person according to the agreement, in that case the agreement is signed by all parties and the deposit is managed and used with the right of joint ownership.

2. The Bank calculates the interests at a simple interest rate, taking 365 days in a year or 366 days in a leap year as a divisor.
3. The interest amount is calculated on a daily basis against the account balance.

4. Where the time deposit is opened with a foreign currency, the interests are paid to the depositor in AMD at the respective buy rate set by the Bank at the date of payment for the respective currency or, at the depositor's discretion, in the currency of the deposit.
5. The interests calculated against the deposit, unless the depositor has received in the period set in the deposit agreement, are paid by the Bank to the depositor on the latter's demand.
6. Unless the depositor demands the redemption of the deposit and the payment of the calculated interest after expiry, the agreement is deemed renewed on the terms and conditions of time deposits applied by the Bank at that point, unless otherwise required in the customer's deposit agreement or based on the customer's written instruction.
